MEET THE STAFF

Catlyn Vickers

Animal Control Director Catlyn Vickers came to Oconee County in April 2002. She started her long career as the first Animal Control Officer in Winter Springs, Florida in 1974. Catlyn is Level 3 National Animal Control Assoc. certified.

A dedicated animal lover, Catlyn has adopted Moses, a black & tan Coon Hound, Yukon, a white Siberian Husky with blue eyes, Maya, a red and white Siberian Husky with golden eyes, and Alue, a black and white Siberian Husky with blue eyes from the Oconee County Shelter. “With three huskies and the breed having so much energy, I strongly believe in letting each dog run on the treadmill for at least an hour. Moses on the other hand is a couch potato.”

Nancy Bennett

Nancy Bennett, Assistant Director, began working at Oconee County Animal Control in January 2006. Before that, Nancy spent 10 years in the US Coast Guard where she was trained as a machinery technician, aids to navigations, search and rescue and pollution investigation. She has 4 dogs and 4 cats - all rescues including 6 from the Oconee County Animal Shelter.

Nick Hensley

Nick Hensley, Animal Control Officer, received his bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from the University of West Georgia.

Officer Hensley started working for Oconee County Animal Control in September of 2012.

Pictured with Officer Hensley is Deuce; his 100 pound Pit Bull Baby. In his off time, Officer Hensley is a sportsman who likes to hunt and fish.

“I enjoy working for Animal Control. We have a great staff who loves helping animals and the community.”

Cherilyn O. Williams

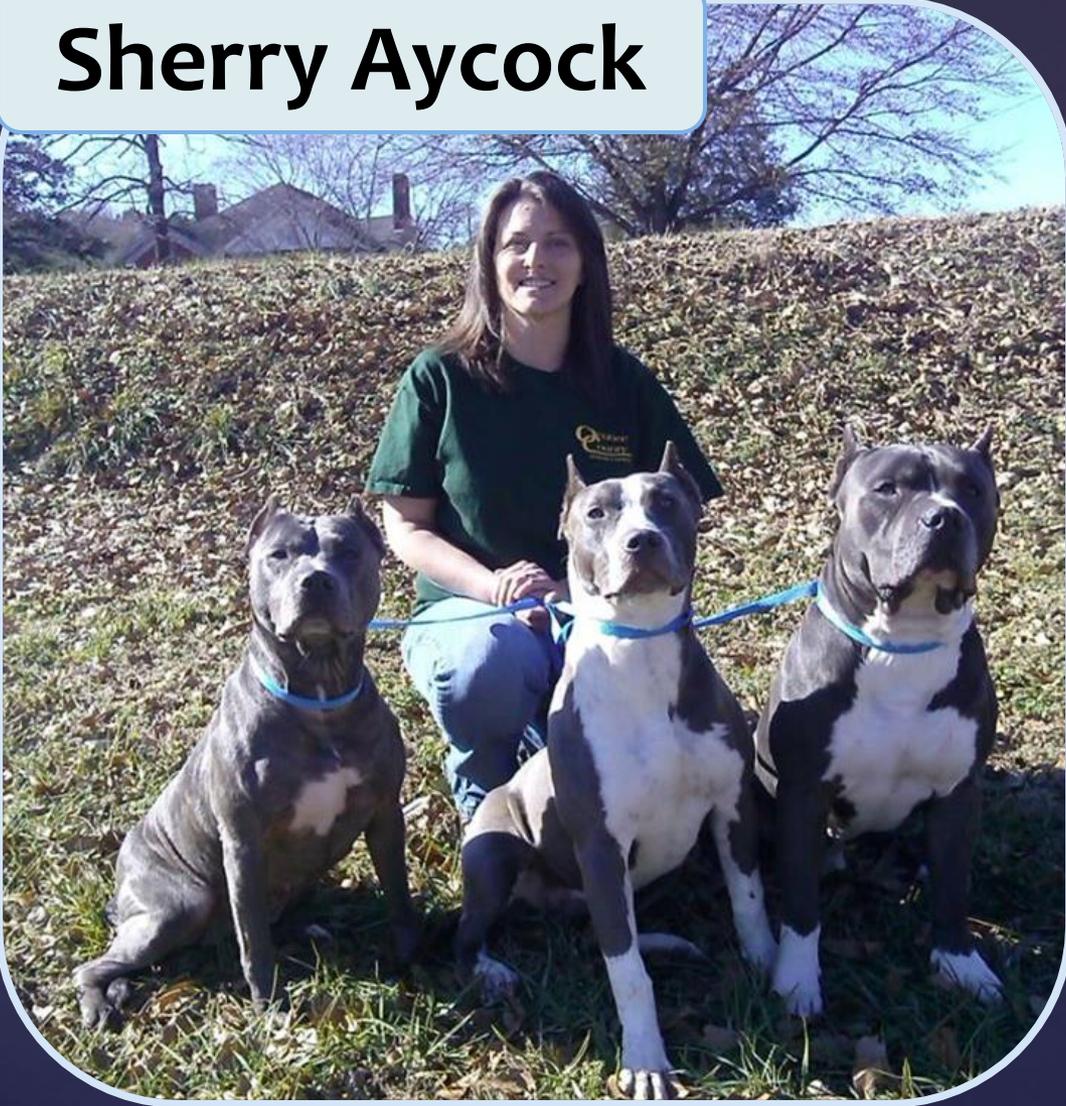

Animal Control Officer Cherilyn O. Williams received her Bachelor's degree in Child and Family Development from the University of Georgia.

In November of 2012, Cherilyn started working with Oconee County Animal Control.

Prior to coming to the shelter, Cherilyn was a Police Officer and Deputy Sheriff.

Cherilyn has two German Shepherds named Shea and Blitz, and two cats named Weasel and Sophie. Sophie was adopted from the shelter.

Sherry Aycock

Sherry Aycock started with Animal Control in January of 2014. She has been a county resident since she was 11 years old and, you could say, she's seen the county grow a lot.

Sherry is passionate about working with any type of animal but Pit Bulls are at the top. Her dream is to one day have a Pit-bull rescue.

In her spare time, she enjoys being with her husband, four children and grandson.

Most people know her as a strong willed, soft hearted, and hard working woman who starts and ends each day with a smile and loves being part of the OCAC family.

Jessica Burnley

In August 2012, Jessica started volunteering part time at the shelter on Tuesdays and Thursdays. After a year or so of steady volunteering, she began a part time position as a Kennel Tech.

She runs the shelter's Facebook page Friends of Oconee County Animal Control. Alongside Officer Crystal Berisko, they save lives via advocacy through social media and have increased the shelter adoptions substantially.

Jessica is a home school student about to graduate high school. She enjoys working at the shelter while working for her diploma.

Jessica owns 7 Great Pyrenees (pictured is Bullseye - 3 years old) and six cats including three adopted from the shelter.
