~~Yes~~ ^{NO} 9-9-20 per Ms. Marable -KH

If yes, please list the name and activity of the business or corporation

Field not completed.

Please explain any previous experience with State or Local Government

I do not have any direct experience in local government but I work in University of Georgia Cooperative Extension and have an understanding of the role of the Board of Commissioners in relation to Extension in our state. I also just completed a term on Dr. Branch's Superintendent Advisory Committee where I served a two year term on that committee as the representative for Colham Ferry Elementary School.

Briefly explain why you seek this appointment

I have worked in education for 25 years with a keen interest in literacy. I understand that a literate community contributes to our economic development, quality of life, and community development. I appreciate the programmatic aspects and the community development that a library offers and I want to champion that for Oconee county. I believe in serving the community and I would welcome the opportunity to advocate for our libraries and share the message of impact our libraries have in our community.

If appointed, I agree to serve.
