- Base charge applies to each meter.
If a mailed bill is not received, this does not relieve the customer from paying delinquent bill.
Non-payment in our office by the due date is subject to a $2.00 or 10% late fee.
Water meters must be accessible at all times, and are located in the county right-of-way.
If payment is not received in our office by 15 calendar days past the due date, $40 will be added to the account and service discontinued.
Failure to give a termination date in writing will result in customer being responsible for any water usage until account is closed.
Tampering with meter will result in a fine of $250.00.

I agree with all contents of this application, and will conform to all policies of the Oconee County Utility Department. I also authorize service and accept responsibility for the bill at the service address listed above.
